PLAYGROUNDS OPENED YESTERDAY.

Yesterday was a gala time for the kiddies of Paris, marking the opening of the new playgrounds, which have been in course of construction for some time. The formal opening took place at four o'clock, when the committee in charge dedicated them to the use of the children of Paris. The committee were assisted in entertaining the children by Mrs. Elizabeth Carr, president of the Community Recreation Club, Miss Edith Stivers and Miss Ruby Elder.

Ice cream cones were served to the children, and games and story-telling made up a most interesting program that pleased and entertained the tots. The play space at the school house was enlarged through the generosity of the Paris City Council in permitting the fence to be moved back so as to take in a part of the city quarry. The Simms Wilson lot was also put into use. A baseball diamond for playground baseball has been laid out on this lot and also on the Barbee lot at Nineteenth and Main streets. Some of the equipment is now being made to be placed on the Brennan lot, the school house lot and the Wilson lot.

Supervisors will be appointed for these playgrounds, and children may feel free to come to any of these places from 4:00 p. m. to 6:00, when the supervisors will be there to take care of them. The mothers are also invited to come out with the children at these hours, and they will be welcomed to any of the playgrounds.

THE BOURBON GUN CLUB

The all-day shooting tournament held by the Bourbon Gun Club on their grounds in East Paris Friday was one of the most interesting in a series of such events during the present season. Twenty-three visiting shooters from other cities were present and took part. The club members gave an old-fashioned Bourbon county picnic dinner at noon, which was pronounced by everyone there to be the best they ever sat down to. Woolfolk Henderson was high gun for the day, breaking 99 out of 100. Amos Turney scored second place with 98 out of 100, and Alfred Clay and H. C. Herndon tied for third place, each breaking 95 out of 100. Other shooters made scores ranging from 94 down to 17.

The Bourbon Gun Club will have two or three squads at the State tournament, which will be held in Louisville, on July 20, 21 and 22. They are expected to give a good account of themselves.

THE BOOSTERS ARE COMING, SO, NOW, SO NOW!

Everything is set for the big trip the Bourbon Boosters will take today, and little remains to be said. All machines, together with all who are to make the trip, will leave the vicinity of the court house at eight o'clock this morning, and parade up and down Main street, out Second street to Shawhan, then to Ruddicks Mills, Millersburg, Little Rock, North Middletown, Clintonville, Hutchison, then back to Paris. The following speakers will make short talks at each stop: Henry A. Power, Wm. O. Hinton, Judge Denis Dundon, and Thos. W. Spicer.

Concerts will be given at each place visited by the Paris City Band, and in addition to this musical attraction, there will be an added attraction. Pearce Paton, the eminent baritone singer, is scheduled for a place on the program with one or more selections at each stop. Dinner will be served at noon by the ladies of North Middletown, and a general all-round good time is expected.

The accomplishments of the aims sought by the Boosters' Club has been in the hands of the following committees, who have labored long and earnestly to make the trip an assured success: General Chairman and Marshal of the Day—Rudolph Davis; Autos and Attendance—Clyde Huffman, Withers Davis, Charles Greene, W. E. Hacker, James Day and S. Wollstein; Publicity and Advertising—M. E. Guttman and R. C. Ruggles; Entertainment and Attractions—Lawrence Price and Sidney Ardery; Finances—Barnett Winters and Wm. Mitchell.

BOURBON FIGURES IN 1921 SCHOOL CENSUS

The recent report of State Superintendent of Schools George Colvin, given publicity Sunday, shows there are 648,459 children of school age in the State. Of the total 442,290 are on the county school census, 140,940 on the city school census, and 65,268 in the independent graded school districts. The 1921 census is a slight increase over that of 1920. In the census figures for Central Kentucky, as published on Sunday, the Bourbon county schools are credited as follows: Bourbon county—1920, 2,590, in 1921, 2,551; city schools—in 1920, Paris, 1,282, in 1921, 1,319; the independent graded schools of the county, as follows: Little Rock, 110; North Middletown, 411.

ADJUDGED INSANE

Mrs. Sarah Hedges, of Escondido, was brought before County Judge George Batterton, in the County Court, Friday afternoon on a lunacy charge. A jury trying the case adjudged her to be of unsound mind, and ordered her committed to the Eastern Kentucky Hospital for the Insane, at Lexington, where she was taken later. This is the third time Mrs. Hedges has been an inmate of the institution.

RELIGIOUS WORKERS' SCHOOL AT WESLEYAN COLLEGE

A meeting which is attracting unusual interest is Standard Training School for Christian Workers, which will be held at Kentucky Wesleyan College, Winchester, Ky., Aug. 8-14. This is one of a series of like gatherings being held throughout the South under the direction of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

That training school at Winchester will be under the direction of the Educational Department of the General Sunday School Board and the Board of Missions of the Kentucky Conference, M. E. Church, South.

The Board of Managers is composed of the following men: Rev. J. Q. Schisler, Nashville, Tenn., director; Rev. C. H. Greer, Paris, chairman; Dennis V. Snapp, Paris, secretary; Rev. G. W. Banks, Winchester; Rev. W. R. Garriott, Berry; Wm. B. Gragg, Somerset; Rev. J. P. Strother, Danville; Rev. C. C. Fisher, Millersburg; Rev. George D. Prentiss, Lexington; Rev. Will B. Campbell, Winchester.

Dennis V. Snapp, of Paris, who has general charge of promoting the school, returned Friday from Lake Junaluska, N. C., where he attended the opening of the Junaluska Standard Training School, the original of this kind, which marked the beginning of a new and more thorough order of training for Methodist leaders and workers in the Sunday school field. Mr. Snapp stated that over four hundred students, representing every State in the South, were in attendance, besides sixteen students enrolled from Cuba.

THE BOURBON BOOSTERS

Paris Merchants are today "Boostin'" Paris and Bourbon County. Each merchant is either contributing to the good cause or is among the bunch with a souvenir and a glad hand extended to his friends out in the county or adjoining towns.

Whatever you can't purchase in your own home town, Paris invites you to come to her stores and purchase—keep the money at home if possible—if you can't do that, don't let it get away from Bourbon County. Let us of Bourbon County get together for our mutual prosperity and benefit. We are all neighbors, relatives or friends in Bourbon, so let's trade with each other.

Trade at home if you can get what you want—if you can't get them, come to Paris, the best shopping center in Kentucky.

COLORED GIRL DROWNED

While playing on the banks of Stoner Creek, Saturday evening, at a point near the pumping station of the Paris Water Company, Mary Kellis, colored, aged eight, was drowned by falling in the water from a rope from which she and her companions had been swinging.

The Kellis girl had swung out over the water several times, and on the last venture the rope, a slender affair, broke, throwing her into the water, at that point very deep. The girl struggled and screamed, but no help being available to rescue her, sank to rise no more. Coroner Rudolph Davis was summoned and went to the scene, where the body was finally located by Thomas Sadler and brought to shore. The girl was a daughter of Andrew Kellis, trainer at the Hancock stables near the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Williams. Kellis was to have gone to Saratoga, New York, Sunday morning, in charge of a bunch of thoroughbreds from the Hancock farm. Coroner Davis did not hold an inquest, deeming it unnecessary.

Warren Williams, who lives near the scene of the accident, hearing the drowning child's cries, rushed to the creek, and without removing his clothes, jumped in and attempted to seize the child as she was going under for the third time. He lost his hold of her, and being handicapped by weight of his clothing, reached the shore with difficulty.

DISAGREEABLE ODOR IN PARIS CITY WATER

For several days complaints have been voiced by citizens regarding a disagreeable odor emanating from the water supply furnished the city and consumers through the Paris Water Company. The odor strongly resembling that caused by waterlogged wood or dead leaves. A NEWS man asked City Health Officer A. H. Keller yesterday regarding the matter, and for an explanation Dr. Keller says:

"The odor about which so much complaint has been made is nothing more or less than that caused by a solution of chlorine, which is used by the Water Company in purifying the water which comes through the pipes. It has no bad qualities, and does not affect the quality of the water. Owing to the low stage of water in Stoner creek at the present time I advised Mr. Mitchell to increase the per cent. of chlorine used in this process, which tends to kill all the possible harmful animalculae in the water, ordinarily invisible to the human eye. There is positively nothing harmful in this solution, and our people need not be afraid of using it. Of course, as a precaution, I have advised boiling water used for drinking or domestic purposes. But as far as this odor or taste in the water is concerned, it is absolutely harmless, and should not give anyone a moment's uneasiness."

BOURBON COUNTY BURLEY MEETING TO-MORROW

The first concentrated effort to secure signers of the contract to be offered to the tobacco growers of Bourbon county by the Burley Tobacco Marketing Association will begin in this county to-morrow, following a meeting in Paris, when County Chairman Sam Clay and James C. Stone, vice-chairman of the general organization, will speak. The opening of the drive for signatures will be preceded by a meeting at Millersburg to-day, where Mr. Stone will address the growers of that section of the county.

Teams of six men each will be formed in each precinct in the county and will make personal calls at every farm where tobacco is grown. Tenants will be represented by one man on each team. This is said to be the first time in Kentucky where tenants have been invited to come into an organization on an equal footing with the owners. Bourbon county now has pledges representing about 774,000 pounds of tobacco.

BOLD BURGLARS AGAIN

Bold bad burglars paid a visit Saturday night or Sunday night to the Posner Bros. shoe store, making away with a small sum of money from the cash drawer and four pair of shoes. The thief or thieves gained access to the building through a window in the rear of the store. The police were notified, and made an investigation. No clue to the visitors.

BASE BALL NOTES

"If Goody had been in the catcher's box in that first inning Paris would have been victor," was the doleful comment heard Sunday afternoon after the Paris Ruggles and the Mammoth Garage team, of Lexington, had fought out a nine-inning bout to a 4 to 3 score in favor of the Lexington bunch.

Yates played the initial inning behind the bat for Paris, but could not hold Caparoni. Goodman went to the rescue, and held the Lexington men safely through the rest of the game. Lexington scored two runs in the opener that should never have gone to them. Paris made a game struggle to catch up, scoring two in the second and one in the third. Through the remaining six innings both teams went scoreless. The outstanding features of the game were the pitching of Vanarsdale, for the visitors, and the batting and fielding of Nippert, for Paris. Despite the torrid weather a large and enthusiastic crowd gathered to witness what proved to be by far the best game played on the local grounds this season. Games like Sunday's will largely increase the attendance and interest in the great National game here. The batteries were: Paris, Caparoni, Yates and Goodman; Lexington, Vanarsdale and Brown.
